COURSE DESCRIPTION

The purpose of Law 30 is to assist you to become an active, informed and productive citizen who knows and understands your legal rights and responsibilities. Through the course, you will develop an understanding of the concept of rule of law, and learn that the law reflects, and is shaped by, society's values and attitudes regarding social and human relationships. We will first explore the concepts of law and their origins and then look how they apply to current legal issues in Canada and the global community. The 5 Units we will cover in depth include: Foundations of Canada's legal system, Criminal Law, Civil Law, Family Law and an abbreviated unit on Employment and Labour Law. For a final assessment you will have the choice to do a major project or a comprehensive final exam!

- Appreciate the benefits to employers and employees of fair workplace practices.

TEACHING STRATEGIES:

The majority of this course is based around online Law 30 course in moodle. I wanted to create a blend of online and offline activities so that some of the course could be worked on even if access to the internet was slow or unavailable. This course provides plenty of learner choice in ways to learn and respond to your understandings. Inquiry and exploration are encouraged in many of the “Go Deep”, end of unit Choice assignments and in your major project. In general each lesson consists of a reading and a video lesson to watch so that then you will have the required base to complete the assigned activities. Many of the activities/assignments within the course will require you to access websites, research and to present your understandings through video, podcasts, web tools and written responses. Based on big questions the Unit Exams are open book and open people. You are encouraged to get others to critically read your prepared responses and support your answers with cited sources as Law is based on precedents. The Major project will require plenty of planning in advance and conversations with your teacher. You will be required to log into moodle regularly and participate in the online discussions so that we can learn from each by reading and commenting on each other's learning! A twitter feed and a shout box are also available within the course for students to carry on learning conversations and to get to know each other as classmates.

Unit of Study	Essential Questions
---------------	---------------------

Unit 1: Introduction to Law	Do we need law? What makes up the Foundation of Canadian Law? What is the relationship between individuals and the legal system? What is justice?
Unit 2: Criminal Law	Is crime a normal part of society? What are the elements/causes of crime?
Unit 3: Civil Law	What purpose does civil law serve?
Unit 4: Family Law	Is there a need for family law or are these simply personal matters for families to deal with?
Unit 5: Employment Law	How do employment laws work for you?

COURSE MATERIALS

- There is no required textbook, videos or workbooks for the course. The online course itself is resource based and all the materials required for this course are included in it. A complete study guide and notes that can be printed off is included! The "All About Law" text by Nelson is not required for the course but may be a very handy research tool for the case studies and major project.
- Other resources: This course makes extensive use of a PC, a mobile device and broadband internet to access, learn, create and submit your course work. Depending on what you choose as a major project you may need to access Law Institutions and resources within Saskatchewan.

EVALUATION:

Marks Breakdown:

1) Units of instruction are worth 60% of your final mark.

- Unit Portfolio Assignments – 5%
- “Your Choice” – End Of Unit Assignments – 15%
- Unit Tests (choice based open book) – 40%

2) Case Studies/Current Events (to provoke legal thought) – 15%

3) Final Evaluation - Outdoor Experience or Inquiry Project - 25%

A) A media based project that studies a Canadian Legal Case/Issue in detail will be worth

--- OR---

B) A comprehensive Final Exam.

All assignments, end of unit assessments (choice/go deep), quizzes and the major project are to be submitted digitally within your course. In general I will return submissions within a day or so and will use one of the following rubrics below to evaluate. A comprehensive rubric is presented along with the major project within the course should you choose to do that option over the final exam.

Assessment Beliefs

Ultimately I want you to learn the bigger concepts of each Unit and provide every opportunity for success:

- 1. Content is not assessed, understanding is. If you can google it as content, you don't have to "learn" it.*
- 2. No assignment is done evaluation until you are happy with your mark. You can resubmit as assignment again. Be reasonable here though! At times I may not be happy with the first submission and may ask you to simply redo.*
- 3. "Borrowed" Answers - if there is evidence of cut and paste responses I will ignore the submission and ask you to resubmit*
- 4. Learning is a conversation. I will provide meaningful feedback on your assignments and may at times ask for you to respond back. Please do and feel free to ask questions along the way to clarify you learning.*

Throughout the course you are expected to participate in case discussion forums. You are required to make one intelligent post of your own using the case study analysis guide and response to one other post - interjecting a new idea or thought each time.

When participating in online forums you must remember to follow forum etiquette by being polite and trying hard to show enthusiasm and energy and not to post just to fulfill the requirement of posting. You must try to push the conversation forward through the SEE Model!

ie: Make a statement, follow up with an example, and then explain what you mean.

Case Studies Forums Participation Rubric:

Criteria	Advanced (3)	Proficient (2)	Not Yet There (1)	Not There at All (redo)
Development of Ideas	Well-developed ideas; introduces new ideas, and stimulates discussion	Developing ideas; sometimes stimulates discussion	Poorly developed ideas which do not add to the discussion	Does not enter the discussion -please do so.
